

Consider the following model of the movie database:

Draw this model in ERDplus and get familiar with the Crow's foot notation.

Extend the model by adding support for registered users and movie ratings:

- For each user we want to register an email (which will also be used as login), name and password.
- Each registered user can rate any movie by giving between 1 and 10 stars to it.